

Boris Dallal

IKEBANA INTL.
SOGETSU SCHOOL
FLORAL DESIGNER

31 SUMMIT ROAD
PORT WASHINGTON, N.Y. 11050
(516) 944-3021

BIOGRAPHY

Objective: Instructor in the art of Sogetsu Ikebana (the art of Japanese flower arrangement)

Education: O and A Level from Oxford University, Oxford, England.
Majoring in French and English languages and literature.
Graduated 1953.

Fashion Design in Barrett School Polytechnic - 1954, London, England.

Diploma in Sogetsu Ikebana in Tehran, Iran from the Ikebana School - 1968. Diploma from Tokyo, Japan.

Diploma from Stellaco, renowned Ikebana instructor in London, England. Diploma from Tokyo, Japan.

Teacher's seminar in Tokyo, Japan - 1990.

As instructor of Sogetsu Ikebana, I attend regular instruction sessions and workshops with group teacher from around the world.

Experience: Lecture demonstrations in Garden Clubs of Pittsburg, Virginia Beach and Denver; Hadassah organisations, private charity functions; Kriickerbocker Club, Dolphin Square, Plantation House in London, England.

Participated in exhibitions in New York Horticultural Society, Lever House, World Trade Center, Nippon Club, New York Flower Show, New Orleans Convention, San Diego Convention, Japan House, San Francisco Convention (Nikko Hotel), Ikebana Headquarters in Tokyo; Caxton Hall, Brompton Oratory and Nelson House in London.

Teaching

Experience: Adult Education Programs of Port Washington, Great Neck, Roslyn etc.

Workshops at Bayard Cutting Arboretum, Leeds Science Museum, Hudson River Museum, Planting Field Arboretum, New York Botanical Garden, Queens Botanical Garden, Clark Garden, Hofstra University.
Regularly scheduled workshops in Sogetsu Ikebana at my private studio.